

The Paul Wolff Accessibility Advocacy Award
550 Dana Street, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

2017 Award Nomination Form:
Business or Community Groups

This nomination form must be completed and received by March 16, 2018 at the above address or at FAX number (805) 543-2346. PLEASE PRINT.

The Paul Wolff Accessibility Advocacy Award (PWAAA) recognizes and rewards organizations and businesses for outstanding efforts to create a more accessible San Luis Obispo County. Although selection of the 2017 PWAAA recipients will be based primarily on efforts and contributions made during 2017, previous accomplishments in this regard will be considered.

Eligibility Requirements:

Businesses, community groups--including non-profits and government organizations are eligible for this award. The nominee must be a resident or be located within San Luis Obispo County. The qualifying activity for this award must have been accomplished within San Luis Obispo County or must be of benefit to individuals with disabilities who live, work or visit the County.

Nominee Category (check one) Business Community Group

Name of Nominee: _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

If a group/business is being nominated, briefly provide the name of a contact person and describe the main purpose of the group/business.

Person Making the Nomination

Your Name _____

Your Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

Please answer all of the following questions (use a spare sheet if needed.)

1. How do you know the nominee or the nominee's work?
2. Describe what the nominee did in 2017 to qualify for the PWAA award. Why was this important and what need or problem did it address?
3. Who has and will benefit from the nominee's efforts? How many community members does this affect?
4. What is the mission or purpose of the community organization or business?
5. Was the action by the nominee new or unique to SLO County? If so, how?
6. Describe any prior activities by the business or community organization that demonstrates a commitment to inclusion of persons with disabilities.